Call for Papers

"Investing in Youth for a Sustainable Future"

Leaders of Tomorrow at the Congress in Skopje

4-5 October 2018, Skopje, Macedonia

We started this cherished tradition five years ago with the idea to give a chance to students from all over the world, to express their ideas and thoughts on a number of subjects. We are hoping that through their presentations on this year's topic "Investing in Youth for a Sustainable Future", we could develop a dialog which can greatly improve our view on our future.

So, we are thrilled to announce that for the fifth time now, we are opening the call for abstract to the International Student Congress 2018, under the guidance of the International Balkan University, and we are inviting you to send us your research papers on the following subtopics:

Economics, Management and Business:

- Youth and Unemployment
- Youth Entrepreneurship
- Youth - led Innovation
- Youth as a Smart Investment
- Youth Leaders of the Future
- Virtual Currencies and Stock of Exchange

Psychology, Political Sciences and Social Sciences:

- Youth over the Stigma on Mental Health
- Adolescent Psychology/Psychopathology: A Future Viewpoint
- Youth Mental Health: Theory and Practice
- Positive Youth Development
- Personality and Psychological Well-Being of Adolescents: The Moderating Role of Multiple Intelligences
- Strengthening Resilience, Peace, Security and Governance
- United Youth of the Future
- Migration and Mobility
- Brain Drain vs. Brain Gain

Communications:

- Youth, Identity and Digital Media
- Youth, Civic Engagement, and the New Information Environment
- Youth and Mass Communication: Pros and Cons

Engineering:

- Youth and Technology: Power and Danger
- The Role of the Youth in Nation Building
- Investing in People – Education, Science, Technology and Skills Development
- Crypto Currency and Data Mining

Art and Design:

- Benefits of Youth Involvement in Art
- Art and Designs Role in Empowering Youth
- Developing the Creative and Innovative Potential of Young People for a Better Future

ABSTRACT GUIDELINES:

We would like to encourage students and to invite them to submit their abstract and become part of IBUISC'18. The abstract should contain a clear outline of theoretical framework, the theme or the work in discussion. The text of the abstracts should be submitted in English ONLY, and it should a maximum of 350 words. Submission of the abstracts shall be done directly in the Online Application Form. While fulfilling the Online Application Form, you will see a box where you should insert only the text of the abstract. You will also have separate boxes where you shall include the title of your paper as well as the keywords of your abstract.

ONLINE APPLICATION:

Your official application for the International Student Congress shall be submitted through the Online Application Form which can be found on our webpage: www.isc.ibu.edu.mk → How to Apply → Application Form. All boxes of the Application Form are compulsory, in case the application is done individually; meaning if there is one author applying for the Student Congress. In case two authors apply with one Abstract, there is additional space in the Application Form in which information for the second author is required. The Application form consists of four separate sections including: Personal Information, Academic Information, Passport Information and Abstract Submission Form.

In order for your application to be valid as well as accepted we urge you to fill all the required blank spaces, including the abstract submission form. This means that when we receive your application, we simultaneously receive the abstract for your paper and we gradually send it for approval. This would make the whole process easier and more effective and we would concentrate more on making your experience more enjoyable.

We would like again to urge you to give all the information that we require and to thank you for taking the time to apply.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Students at Bachelor Level
- Students at Master Level
- Students at PhD Level

We welcome submission of abstracts from students from all around the world including students from all levels of their studies related to the fields of economics, communications, psychology, political science, engineering, art and design, law, and education.
